

Q – 1 This woman was tenacious and continued to contend, to argue with the Lord Jesus for her daughters deliverance. What made her so persistent? Do you think it was faith or desperation?

Q – 2 At first the Lord Jesus ignored the woman.

A. Why is God sometimes silent to us?

B. What should we do when this happens?

Q – 3 Pastor Derek said in his sermon that God's silence is meant to draw us closer to Him. How does that work?

Q – 4 Please read Matt 15: 25. In what way can the words "Lord, Help me!" be counted as praise?

Q – 5 The woman was passionate and persistent, although these are good, even commendable things, the Lord Jesus was more impressed with and even commended her for her faith. Since faith is so vital, how can we get more of it?

Q – 6 When it comes to raising our children or other important issues in our lives, feelings and thoughts of failure can turn to depression and despair. These are obstacles that should draw us closer to the Lord. What would cause us instead to turn away from Him during these trials?
